

Una Kilbane

Una has 20 years of experience in hotel management both in Ireland and in Continental Europe. Hospitality has been at the forefront in her career and she is an asset to Breaffy House Resort. Una's passion for hospitality and people can be clearly seen as she always has the customer and their needs in the front of her mind. In Una's seven years of working at Breaffy House Resort and in her position as Deputy Manager, she has achieved great things. Her accomplishments include regaining the four star status for the Breaffy House Hotel, winning Ireland's Family Friendly Hotel at the Gold Medal Awards in 2019 and receiving Good Food Ireland accreditation.

Breaffy House Resort has a long standing connection and affiliation with France, dating back to 1798 when General Humbert arrived in Castlebar. In recent years, Breaffy House Resort has welcomed the previous two French Ambassadors and looks forward to welcoming the current one. The French Consulate is a regular visitor to the resort also. The resort boasts a fantastic private French wine cellar with a selection of the finest French wines available. In addition to this, the resort has participated in the French Fine Food Week as well as being affiliated with La Rochelle Hotel Group. Breaffy House Resort works closely with the French Embassy and facilitated Air France during Covid-19 lockdowns when the Air Bus landing in Ireland West Airport Knock.